AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, D.C.

(General Sugar Regulations Series 1)

ENTRY OF SUGAR INTO THE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES

GENERAL SUGAR REGULATIONS MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE UNDER THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Agricultural Adjustment Act, approved May 12, 1933, as amended, I, H. A. WALLACE, Secretary of Agriculture, do make, prescribe, publish, and give public notice of these regulations with the force and effect of law, to be in force and effect until amended or superseded by regulations hereafter made by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(A) Processors, handlers of sugar, and others are hereby forbidden from importing or bringing into, transporting to, or receiving in continental United States sugar produced in any area outside of continental United States, except through customs ports of entry. The collectors of customs shall not permit any such sugar to enter continental United States unless, and until, there shall be furnished proof as to the following matters satisfactory to the collector of customs (an affidavit in duplicate subscribed and sworn to by the consignee, as to such matters may be accepted by the collector of customs as satisfactory proof thereof): (1) The area in which such sugar was produced, (2) the port from which said sugar was brought, (3) the names of the consignor, consignee, shipper, and owner, (4) the kind or type and identification marks of such sugar, (5) the purpose for which such sugar is brought into continental United States, to wit, whether such sugar is for consumption in or for export from continental United States, either in the state in which it is being imported or brought into continental United States, or after it has been further refined, improved in quality or further prepared for distribution or use, (6) the allotment, if any, under which such sugar is being imported or brought into continental United States, specifying in particular the amount of such allotment, the person to whom made, and the quantities of sugar previously imported or brought into continental United States thereunder, (7) the polarization and the weight of such sugar.

(B) Upon determination and certification by the Secretary of Agriculture that sugar, produced in any particular area outside of continental United States, has, during any calendar year, been brought into continental United States for consumption therein in amounts totaling the amount of the quota fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture for that area for such calendar year, collectors of customs shall permit no further sugar from such area to enter continental United States during such calendar year, except as authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture and in accordance with the terms and conditions of such authorization.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington this 15th day of June 1934.

H Wallace
Secretary of Agriculture.

Approved:

Franklin D. Roosevelt

The President of the United States
